The rates of Estate Duty which were originally imposed by the Finance Act, 1894, were altered in 1907, 1909 and 1914 by the Finance Acts of those years.

All property passing by death has to be aggregated for the purpose of ascertaining the rate of duty, but this rule is subject to certain qualifications. The principal qualifying provision is as follows:—

Where settled property passes on the death of a person dying on or after 19th April, 1907, under a disposition made by a person dying before 2nd August, 1894, and such property would, if the disponer had died on or after 2nd August, 1894, have been liable to Estate Duty upon his death, it is not to be aggregated with other property, but is to be treated as an "estate by itself."

In the case of deaths before May 12th, 1914, where property liable to Estate Duty is settled by the will of the deceased, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under that disposition, on the death of the deceased, to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty —called Settlement Estate Duty—is payable at the rate of £2 per cent. on the settled property, but from that payment the ad. val. Stamp Duty (if any) charged on the settlement may be deducted.

If, however, Estate Duty becomes payable a second time under the same settlement, the Settlement Estate Duty already paid is allowed for.

SMALL ESTATES.—(i.) If the net value of the property, real and personal, passing on the deceased's death (exclusive of property settled by any prior disposition) does not exceed £1,000, such property is exempt from Settlement Estate Duty, and from Legacy or Succession Duties. (ii.) And where the gross value of the unsettled property passing on the deceased's death does not exceed £300 or £500 respectively, and a grant of probate or administration is taken out in a certain special manner, a fixed Duty of 30/- or 50/- is payable, and such estate is exempt from all other Death Duties.

With respect to Personal Estate, interest at 3 per cent. per annum, without deduction for Income Tax, is also payable on the Estate Duty from the date of the death up to the date of the delivery of the affidavit.

The Estate Duty on real property may be paid, if desired, by eight yearly or sixteen half-yearly instalments, the first at the expiration of 12 months from the death, with interest at 3 per cent. per annum from the last-mentioned date on the duty for the time being unpaid.

INLAND REVENUE DUTIES—con.

LEGACY AND SUCCESSION DUTIES—ALSO SEE "ESTATE DUTY."

RATES OF DUTY—Husband or Wife of the Deceased, Children of the Deceased, or their Descendants, or the Father or Mother or other Lineal Ancestor, £1 per cent. ; Brothers and Sisters or their Descendants, £5 per cent. ; Persons in any other degree of collateral Consanguinity, or Strangers in Blood, £10 per cent. A Legatee or Beneficiary, whose Husband or Wife is of nearer Relationship, is chargeable with Duty at the rate at which such Husband or Wife would be chargeable. Relations of the Husband or Wife of the Deceased are chargeable with Duty at £10 per cent. unless themselves related in blood to the Deceased. Appraisements or Valuations of any Property made for the purpose of ascertaining the Legacy Duty payable in respect thereof are exempt from Stamp Duty.

If, however, Estate Duty is not payable the rates are 1½, 6½ and 11½ respectively.

The rates were last altered by the Finance (1909-1910) Act, 1910.

The Husband, Wife and Children are still exempt in Estates of less value than £15,000.

In Estates exceeding that figure the Wife or minor Child is exempt if the individual benefit does not exceed £2,000, and other Children if the benefit does not exceed £1,000 derived from the same predecessor.

Afternoon Issue of two days rations to all ranks. Parade at 4.45 p.m. and move off at 5 pm. 200 yds between platoons. Destination:- Check Trench.

Evening. Arrived at Check Trenches (about one mile north of Montabaun) at 6.30 pm & immediately proceeded to dig-in, fatigue parties carrying on this work during the night.

In view of expected retaliation to our bombardment, digging-in was continued & practically completed.

at 6 pm left Check Line for Carlton Avenue were we took up position of Reserve Battalion for the 2nd Brigade, in preparation for the attack which was to commence on the 15th.

at 6 am bombardment which had been continuous throughout the week, reached a climax and at 6.20 am (zero time) the attack commenced

Our Brigade position lay from High Wood on the left to junction of Otago and Tea Trench on the right & the Battlns. were in the following order -

S - Otago
S S - Canterbury
Reserve - Wellington

The Division had four objectives, viz :-

1st-Objective - 2nd Brigade (Switch Trench)
2nd " - 3rd Brigade
3rd " - 3rd Brigade
4th " - 3rd Brigade

The 1st Brigade was in Reserve.

At about 7.30 am our Battalion moved up from Carlton Avenue to line vacated by Canterbury who had moved up to Otago line, Otago having taken the place of Auckland, in the front line. Places taken by our Battlns. were - 1st line - Hawkes Bay in Worcester Tr., Thistle Lane to Turk Lane.

Support - Taranaki in Seaforth Tr., Thistle Lane to Turk Lane.

Reserve - Ruahine in Rifles Tr., Thistle Lane to Turk Lane.

After leaving Carlton Avenue, Taranaki Coy proceeded to Seaforth Tr. arriving at 8.15 am, in following order - Coy Hd Qtrs. on left at junction with Thistle Avenue, then L Mr Gunners, No 9, 10, 11, & No 12 Platoon on right, at Turk Lane.

Coy dug-in & came under very heavy shell-fire losing about 10 to 15 men, killed, wounded, and shell-shock. We remained in this position.

improving it, until 1.45 pm, when, having received instructions from the C.O., Coy got under way & dumped overcoats. During this wait Lt. Nicol with 10 & 11 Platoons returned about 12 noon to Green Dump & took over 22,000 rounds of SAA & 1 case of rum, & brought it back & on to Switch Trench for Auckland Battalion. These platoons had to work hurridly & through two barrages of H.E. & Shrapnel, & lost only one man killed. This party had not returned to the Coy. when the latter moved into action at 2.5 PM., & they eventually joined us as we reached Hd Qtrs of 4th Battln 3rd Brigade. The reasons of the move of our Battln at this stage of the advance are many. The Rifle Bgde had taken the second objective & the third also. It had advanced according to programme on the forth objective, but owing to the slowness of the Brigades on their left & right to get forward to keep their flanks guarded, & their failure to hold their positions when they did come up, the unfortunate Rifle Brigade (3rd) was badly handled & retired on the 3rd objective. They took up even there, more ground than had been allotted to them & covered the whole of Flers Village, right & left. About noon they became hard pressed & wanting in supplies, ammunition and assistance. Our Battalion was ordered to their help in rather a hurry & a plan of advance was devised in 15 minutes, & 30 minutes from the time of first order from Brigade Hd Qtrs, the Battln was on the move, in the following order -

Hawkes Bay on left,
Wgtn West Coast - right
Taranaki - supporting Ruahine in reserve.

The whole moved in diamond formation, platoons being also in the same order, moving through area covered with crump holes, & plastered with shrapnel fire. The Company moved with No 9 covering Hawkes Bay & No 12 covering Wgtn W.Coast, 2 Machine Guns in centre rear. Direction was difficult until over Crest & Switch Trenches when we were on forward slope of spur leading slightly to left of Flers.

Ember Week

Hitting the right part of Switch Tr. we gathered some ammunition, and moved forward to 200 yards in rear of the 2nd Objective. This place was marked by communication trench, & another trench running to the right into a gully where a dressing station had been established.

The C.O. 1st Bttln NZRB (Col. Roach) was in this trench near the C.T. & agreed that a strong point should be dug on left again to protect the flank. This was carried out by No 9 (2/Lt Walker) & our two Lewis guns, assisted by 2/Lt Monson with two ~~Lewis~~ guns. (Vickers).

Twice, about 3.30 pm, No 10 & No 11 Platoons came up & dug-in in C.T. & cleared it out to No 9 Platoon strong point.

Mr Rauch (No 12) & Mr Nicol (No 10 & 11) continued C.T. through to "D" Coy 4th Battln NZRB.

About this time, Mr Mehorrow of Hawkes Bay attached himself with a platoon & Lewis Gun to the Company, & he took over strong point near Dressing Stn on the right, overlooking the right of Flers.

Old German dugouts, or gun emplacements near No 9's strong point, drew a considerable amount of hostile artillery fire upon the whole Company, & we suffered approximately ten casualties or more in this manner, including the Coy. Sgt. Major, who was killed. A man more fearless & bold, or better loved by the Coy. would be hard to find.

We could not find Battn Hd Qtrs by runners to get information, but passed some through by wire to Brigade Hdqrs. which did not reach line for 3 hours. Runners experienced great difficulty in messages and failed three times to find Batt. Hdqrs.

Capt McKinnon (W. W. Coast) was in need of support in Flers by 7 pm, & I sent Mr McMorran with one platoon & guns of Hawkes Bay. to his assistance as soon as I got his message. At 8.30 pm., from information of Col Rauch, 2/Lt Hood with 10 or 11 Platoons & one Lewis Gun (Roberton), went forward to assist Wgtn W. Coast Coy in Flers, under the direction of the Rifle Brigade, to form a protection to the right flank, which our first line had just discovered about 5 pm to have been vacated by the 47th Div. troops. They had withdrawn without informing Wgtn W. Coast of the situation.

Col Cunningham came round about 11 pm, having been through Flers, & ordered the remainder of the Coy to be thrown in to assist Wgtn W. Coast & Hawkes Bay. At 11.30 pm we moved, leaving Vickers guns to hold our ground & posts. We arrived in Flers without a casualty & in drizzling rain. At this time Flers was held by Wgtn W. Coast, Hawkes Bay, some detachments of the 3rd Brigade, & some small parties of the 47th Division, who had been stopped by 2nd Officers from falling back.

The line ran immediately round the northern skirts of the village & doubled back on either flank behind Box & Cox on right, & top of Abbey Rd on left. The left flank to S.W. was held by Ruahine, & a strong post on Abbey Road. Just in front of centre, on road running N. out of

(5h 35m A.M. (Greenwich)

Village, was one of the famous 'tanks' that had lead the front line troops through Flers. Here it was on the road, with ~~one of the~~ a Hotchkiss pointing down the road & a machine-gun guarding the front of our trenches on either hand.

Capt McKinnon was well acquainted with the dispositions & I gave him two Platoons - 9 & 12, & these took up a position on the left front of Village, in the paddock connecting Wgtn-Wt Coast (on the left by a hedgerow) and Hawkes Bay by Abbey Rd. & Strongpoint on left where Vickers guns were in position under Mr Thomson.

The whole Company dug in both here & on the right flank, where 2/Lt Nicol had 10 & 11 Platoons & ab 4 am on the 16th everyone was down in a trench very much fagged and hungry, yet expectant of a counter-attack on the Village, which did not come.

Our Lewis gun remained in support ab Hdqrs all night & a party of 25 men & one L. Gun under an officer, was sent up at midnight by the 47th Div. to assist in holding the right flank. This was the only help we received from the people who had left us in the lurch - a poor attempt as we were holding not only our own divisional frontage, but also ab 500 yds of theirs. That they had decided that Flers was not worth holding is evident when they dug a line in rear of the village. Their failure, then, can only be defended by their failure to get properly in touch with us, - a thing they never attempted during the night, though we were 1400 yds ahead of them.

Our left was more secure, in that refused by Ruahine, we were again backed up by the 2/ Rifle Brigade; but the salient held by us that night would make anyone creep if put on paper.

During the early hours of the 16th rations for one Battalion were handed to the 3rd NZRB to forward to us as we were supporting them, but they kindly commandeered them, and all our Coys. received, were rations for 32 men a-piece. Water was out of question.

The morning of the 16th broke cold, damp & miserable; & as it came, the 1st Brigade drew nearer & a comforting picture crept over us. First came the runners & then the leading Coys. of the 1st Wellington-Ruahine & Hawkes Bay – & by daylight they had filled the village & disposed themselves in our line, Hawkes Bay on the right & Ruahine on the left. By 7.30 am the Hun artillery had increased in activity on the rear of the village: from a steady crump which had fallen at 5 minutes interval in the village all night, to sudden bursts of shrapnel & universal shell, with a crump at the cross-roads every ½ minute.

About 9.20 am the 1st Brigade attacked & everything was drowned in the Continuous & rumble of our artillery; & almost immediately the whole village was deluged by hostile artillery fire. Trees were stripped of branches & fell in all directions, houses were flattened out & as it increased, by 10.30 it was a perfect hell, – hard of imagination. Five large crumps fell on or about the junction of the road, & many of the Company (9 & 12 Platoons who had been relieved were digging-in here) suffered terrible treatment, & only those who had turned to & made dug-outs after returning from the trenches, escaped being killed or wounded. This heavy bombardment lasted till nearly noon, & it was during those few hours that the Coy lost most heavily.

Nos 10 & 11, who where out on the right, only lost about 6 men the whole day, until relieved by Canterbury at midnight.

The attack progressed some hundreds of yards, making a further L salient in front of Flers, but it could not develop owing to the slow methods of the divisions on the left & right.

St. Matthew, Ap.

At noon all was over. The casualties were not great in the 1st Brigade, but they could not advance further for the reason above.

During the bombardment in the morning great work was done by our Stretcher-bearers attending to the wounded along the road, & all day & night they worked with the pluck of devils carrying men out to the dressing stations. There were others who had done their jobs that day, assisting voluntarily with the wounded, & Mr Cowie organized parties for lifting wounded into safety & bandaging their wounds. (2/Lt Cowie rejoined Coy. on 16th 1/10)
He was greatly assisted in this work by L/Cpl Soffe & Pte G A Edlin.

Our machineguns suffered no casualties during the day, though they were in the trenches all the time.

Rations & water were again a great trouble & we eventually got rations for 8 men, & two tins of water for the Coy. These came to hand in the evening.

The afternoon of the 16th was fairly quiet & enabled most of the 1st Brigade to get through the village & dig communication trenches.

Late in the evening we were relieved by Canterbury so collected the remains of the Coy together & moved away from Flers during the early hours of 17th.

17th Sept:-

We reached Wood Lane & Otago Trenches about 4 am & slept like logs till 7 am. All day the men busied themselves digging-in, as the enemy put

of the 2nd Batt WR

All reserve officers and men left detail camp near Foucaut at 7.15 pm on 15/9/16 to move up to the Battn. about 42 being Taranaki Boy with Lieuts Cowie & Pennefather Had a long march made a little more arduous by striking the wrong road and having to return some considerable distance — Arrived at Green Dump about midnight when the rain commenced — reported to Brigade Major and received orders to proceed at once to front line at 7 Hers with ammunition wire & other material required by companies in front line. A most trying journey over rough ground slippery by rain and shelled by enemy most of the night. To make matters worse guide lost his bearings and party found themselves at daylight in trenches occupied by Otago battalion and some of 2nd NZ Brigade well on left R. The men stuck purely to their loads along narrow trenches blocked by men occupying them. Getting directions every 100 yards or so the party eventually went across country and reached sunken road in 7 Hers about 7 AM on 16/9/16 where Boys were shelling Everyone greatly relieved to have reached destination after a most difficult journey. ~~unspeakably~~ Praise must be given to the men for the spirit displayed under the trying conditions.

a fair amount of H.E. & Shrapnel over at all times.

Reorganization occupied most of the day. In the evening 50 men & 2 guns were used for the defence of left flank behind Switch Tr. were three strong points were dug during the night by a similar party of Ruahine, & ourselves. Mr Cowie was in charge of our party & was relieved by Mr Reid at 8 am on 18th Sept. The night was very wet & miserable & caused endless trouble in the digging of posts..

Sept 18th

All day was spent in resting & organizing. Cleaning of Machine Guns was a difficult matter owing to the wet weather.

Preparations were made for the pending work forward of Flers trenches. The weather remained bad - showery & cold & the ground became a quagmire.

2nd Lt Walker (No 9 Platoon) left the Coy today being ill with trench fever or something of the kind. We had lost several men sick with the same complaint, the last few days.

Orders came at 4 pm for Coy Commanders to inspect the line at Flers to be taken over, & it was found not to be much in advance of line held on night of the 15th/16th Sept.

Road to Flers was in an awful condition & as the Coy moved up at 8.15, we experienced great trouble in the darkness with the connections of Platoons, & progress was so slow that only a few yards - say 30 - could be taken before a halt had to be called, till all men were connected. Almost at the start the Coy was closed up & machineguns brought to the front. This was a good method, as they could rest their loads while the Coy was closing up.

The cabbage patch at back of Flers was reached at 11.15 pm & guides met us the different Platoons of 1st Ruahine Coy, & men got quietly & quickly to their places in the trenches. These as may be imagined, were very bad, & full of mud & water, & the rain & cold of the night, kept the men digging most of the time. Many fell asleep standing in the trenches over their boot-tops in water, so fagged with the slippery journey that they could not even dig a step to sleep on. The previous outposts had done little or nothing to improve these trenches.

Sept 19th

The day was quiet on the whole, & occupied by the men in cleaning & digging out the sodden trenches.

Fitzgerald found a L.M.G. in good order, behind our front line, & also several drums. The gun was cleaned up & was in good working order by night. A crew was also found by Dobbyn to work this gun, & great credit is due to the leaders of the M.G. Sect. for their work in keeping the three guns going.

The enemy were persistent in their bombardment of the support trenches & our own artillery during the first night & morning threw many shells into our front line trench & thereabouts, wounding one or two men.

In the evening about 11 pm, Wgtn. W. Coast tried an attack on a point in road on their front. It was met with machine gun fire & bombing & party was withdrawn.

Work was started in assembly trench in rear of support trench.

Sept 20th

Nothing of importance occured throughout the day, but Sun prevailed at times & dried the trenches & cheered our hearts.

At about 9pm our Battalion was relieved by the 1st Battn NZRB, & moved back to Wood Lane, arriving there at about 1 am.

Sept 21st

The day was spent in general drying & cleaning, & also in digging-in.

A small amount of shelling occurred during the day, chiefly H.E. & Shrapnel, but no casualties resulted.

Sept 22nd

Most of the Coy were on fatigue carrying duckboards.

Coy Hdqrs. was employed in general straightening up of rolls etc.

Sept 23rd

Nothing of importance to recall. Fatigues as usual.

2nd Lt P.T. O'Dowd reported for duty.

Sept 24th

At about 7 am a H.E. landed immediately behind trench occupied by No 9 Platoon & as a result L/Cpl D. Wilson ~~four~~ was killed & four other men wounded.

About 3 am orders were received for Coy to prepare to move back to Savoy Tr. & at 9 pm we left Wood Lane arriving at our destination at 11 pm. Here, trenches being in a dirty & sloppy condition, all had to turn-to & dig-in for the night.

Septr. 17. Transfer: 2nd/Lieut. A.A.E. Pennefather, to Wellington West Coast Coy.

The day was spent in cleaning lines & digging a shallow support trench in rear of Savoy, for sleeping purposes. This trench was considered necessary owing to filthy condition of Savoy.

Jewish Year 5677 begins

Morning - Still awaiting orders to move forward.

afternoon - Shortly before lunch orders were received to be in readiness to move to the front line at 6.25pm, & at that hour the Battalion left in the following order -

Taranaki Coy
Ruahine "
Wgtn-W-Coast
Hawkes Bay

Mr Rauch remained behind & later returned to Transport Lines. Mr Nicol also did not proceed having received orders to leave today for a course of machine gun instruction.

The Coy moved at 6.25 PM. by Cavalry Track and Fish Alley to Flers. (7.30 PM). Then by Abbey Road - North Road to Factory Corner. (8.15 PM) Thence on to front line of Trenches. Coy took over from the XIII Canterbury 1st Batt. and were in position and relief complete by 9.30 PM. Our right resting on Lingy-Tilloy Road N, 19, b, 3, 2, our left on Ruahine Coy. N 19, A, 5, 3. On this left again was 2nd Batt. Auckland Regt. occupying same line of Gent Trenches as far as Gooze Alley. On our Right was the Liverpool Irish Batt. who had relieved by 11th Queens. 55th Division. The Coy was lucky enough to get well into and feel itself right and left before any shelling occurred. and at 10 PM. this started with sudden burst of H.E. Shrapnel and H.E. Shells with a small number of Lachrymatory shells. and intervened throughout the night. The Trenches were by no means properly finished and were were digging all night improving them. Established Coy Hdqrs in an old Hun dug out. 75 yards in Rear of the front line; where several Hun Dug outs (Artillery) existed, under the bank, rather battered the result of our bombardments. Telephone was laid to front line for a start being layed by Pl. Dibble as coy went into trenches This was wored back into Dug out by 2 a.m. but line was already broken in several places and another line of Huns wire was put through, and communication was established by 4 a.m. The heavy shelling caused much trouble to S.A.A. carriers and runners to Batt. Hdqrs, which were at Factory corner, throughout the early hours of the morning.

One Lewis gun on the Road on our Right was disabled by a piece of shrapnel at midnight. It struck the body and smashed that but left the part intact no harm was done to the gunners; and our 3rd which had been till then in reserve was moved into position. Lieut Cook patrolled the front of our position but made no discovery of enemy: owing to his movements being constricted by the incessant fire of our artillery in 'no mans' land.

Morning broke with a heavy mist, which was most fortunate for us, as it enabled a great amount of work to be done, which otherwise could not have been attempted on account of snipers. Communication Trench was laid out and started from Factory Corner by Haw and Nap. On our left, where it was to run to, it was begun by the Coy, and a party was set to work near Coy Hdqrs. A wounded Hun officer was taken out of dugout by Stretcher Bearers; shortly after returning Andrews was wounded by shell and Thoms, who went to his assistance was also wounded. Milligan Tuschendew and Elliott were buried in the morning by H.E. shells and later Sgt. Simmonds Creedon, Shamock and Wilkinson were buried by other H.Es. and all except Milligan and Shamock were evacuated the following morning. A Reaping man was killed by sniper while working on the C.T. and buried near by. During the night Lieut. P.O Dowd took out patrols and visited the 11th Queens on our Right, who had moved forward some 200 yards and were digging a trench under our own shell fire. Our Artillery during these days caused us considerable trouble and annoyance with their shorts and close barrage. The mist which had continued all day enabled great work to be done on the C.T. and all night this work was carried on. The machine gun position on the right was blown in on three different occasions after which fresh positions had to be dug. Corp E Robertson was wounded in the shoulder by shrapnel from our guns. Our batting of these was most persistent in shelling our rear and caused the men great anxiety and frequently blew in the parados & parapets. Two Germans - an officer and his runner - were caught this morning by the centre Lewis Gunners. They were very well dressed and gave themselves up willingly saying they had lost their way. Private G.P. Connor was killed in the morning by our shrapnel. he was an excellent soldier of very cheery disposition. The C.T. was almost completed by dusk. By 6 PM of 30th we received wnd. and orders to move to another part of the line. Major Walker explained route to Goose Alley by Abbey road. The Coy were relieved by Rifle Brigade N.Z. Batt and were clear of trenches by 9 PM making down C.T. to Factory Corner on the North Road. Enemy's shelling was most persistent at this time and increased as we got to Factory Corner where Craig of the M.G. an other excellent soldier was killed and Forbes H.S. was severely wounded in the leg. We halted at junction of North and Abbey Roads to allow Waikato to move in front of us. We arrived in Goose Alley about 11.30 with rations and took up position in front line trench with Right on Road and left on Waikato. 2nd Batt Otago whom we relieved had moved across Bancourt & Abbey Road to right of Goose alley. Wan and Nap were in Reserve in Flers support trench (in left Rear). Battalion Headqrs were in cutting by forked road. As was the usual thing in Goose Alley we were enfiladed by H.E. & H.E shrapnel with damning persistency all night long, but suffered no casualties. In the morning a little sniping was carried out by our men where enemy targets occured towards Bancourt & Abbey.

Cambridge Michaelmas Term begins

The day broke fine and clear, and the position was very quiet A few orders were out regarding the attack to be carried out this day and ground in front of Goose Alley was inspected by Officers and N.C.O. At 11 AM Coy Com^ds were in conference with the C.O. and the orders for the attack were given out and returned to Coys at 12 30 PM Preparations were at once made and Great Coats and other hinderances in attack were dumped.

The following is a copy of the ~~proceedings~~ operation Report on the proceedings, to the C.O. 2^nd Batt. Wellington Regt. 2^nd Brigade N.Z.D. from the O.C. Taranaki Coy. 2^nd Batt. Wgtn Regt.. dated 3-10-16.

Sir. Gueudecourt. 57.C.SW.1.

I beg to report for the ~~the~~ your information on the attack on the 1-10-16 on line of trenches from left of my divisional area. to Gueudecourt L'Abbey. Taranaki Coy was on the Right half of the Sector occupied by the 2^nd Batt. Otago Regt. in the attack. We were in immediate support of same Batt. and were ordered to follow them close upon the objective set them. The Right half of this objective being line of Trench. N.24, A, 5½, 2. Road inclusive to Circus. N.23, B. 7, 4. On the Right Flank. was objective set. 2^nd Canterbury line of trench N.24, A 5½ 2. to N.24, B, 0.1. and beyond to Right of Grid Trench. The Left half of Otago 2^nd Batt. objective was. N.23, B 7, 4 (Circus) to Cross Roads. inclusive N.23. D. 3½, 8½. This sector was covered by Ruahine Coy 2^nd Wgtn. in immediate support on our left. The attacking troops. in this sector Otago & Wgtn started their attack from line of Goose Alley Trench N.24 D.1,7, appx to N.30.A.5.7½. junction of Goose Alley and Abbey Road.

At ZERO time 3.15 first wave of Otago left trench and was followed by three more waves of that Batt^n making four waves in All. All troops went over the parapet in the most wonderful order and the waves followed one another at 50 yards interval Direction kept by them was good as far as could be seen from trench. The left Flank travelling much faster, ~~than~~ that the Right, enable them to make a half right wheel on the objective. There was great difficulty in crossing the Goose Alley trench far enough to cover the right flank, as the trench at Zero was full of Otago men and this delayed the two waves in which the Coy went forward,

Their position in front of Gird trench and mine, with a barrage still playing on them, from our own artillery, was hopeless; and it was this that made me decide to send such a message forward. Fitzgerald got forward and several * parties of a few men came back, and I was informed by two men that they had received the order and had seen Fitzgerald working along to left with order. This was the last seen of him.

Connection with Canterbury on Right proved very hard to Establish and for some two hours there was a bomb on the Right Flank of Road for 200 yards. But shortly after 4 P.M. Mc Palm got a Vickers gun in position on the road. with a splendid field of fire. Shortly after this one Lewis gun (Taranaki) returned (from in front.) on Right and was placed in position 25 yards Rt. of Road and covering gap between Canterbury. Fortunately one Otago gun had not gone forward from objective and was in position at 150 yards Left of Road. and a Vickers gun was about 4.20 PM. got into a position near the same place. About 4.30 PM another Lewis gun (Taranaki) returning from left (in front.) and was placed in position in trench I.M.24.a.1.3. This secured this portion of trench, but still a big gap remained between us and the next Coy Quarries. These people had taken up a position well in advance of the Circus and over Cont. Trench. to N.W, on a ridge which I thought ran on line M.23.b.7.7. appx to Cross Roads. M.23.a.9.3. centre of line curving over line of Road to N.W. I received information from them at appx 4.30 PM saying that Sling Point was being constructed on their Right. This could be seen, and we then felt position on our Left was more secure. Line of trench round to Circus was examined several times and found to be quite shallow. trench in most places 3 ft only deep but had been marked out by Enemy with tapes. An Enemy Howitzer Battery had been in position along this line Circus to M.24.a.1.3. and Coy Hdqrs were established in dug out at latter point. By 5.45 PM. word was received from Quarries saying English had connected up with their left near village Faucourt L'Abbey. Gap from M.24.a.1.3. was explored and found to be a very

suitable trench for support as it commanded splendid field of fire to the left. It was well constructed and ran nearly to Road: many wounded and dead Huns were found in it: also two enemy machine guns and much ammunition and bombs. Trench on line of objective from N.2 A.A.1.3. East was fairly well dug down and in places full of enemy dead and wounded. Our men worked with great effect in this trench and soon had deepened and fire steps made where groups were. Later at dusk another attempt was made to connect with Canterbury on our Right and this time a gap of 150 yards only was found and after conferring with Capt. Shepard of Canterbury it was decided to move two small platoons of 2nd Auckland down to left to cover the above gap. These were before them in position N.24.a.8½.2. and Canterbury were holding fairly strongly at N.24.B.0.2. to 0.4. Machine gun Vickers had been moved along to Right from Road to a new trench being dug at N.24.B.1.3. but same not certain of its exact position. By 8.30 PM we were connected up well to Right. Vickers gun 200 yards left of Road was also removed about dusk. 6.30 PM to Strong Point of Ruahine on left. Same mentioned this in report to Bde at 9 PM. when asked for 2 Vickers guns and 2 platoons to join up with Ruahine. These two platoons of West Coast and about 9.45 PM. and were at once spread over gaps as far as Circus. Appx. N.23.B.8.5. They dug themselves in, in groups, and were well done by midnight. At 10 PM one Vickers gun arrived and was put in position at point 150 yards west of Road. By 11.30 PM W Monson got a German gun in position on Road N.24.A.5½.2. A party of men of different Bns were connected up between Ruahine Right and point N.23.B.8.5. about 10.15 PM. And so the whole line became established from Canterbury to Egmont Bde

☽ 3h 38m A.M. (Greenwich)

Patrols were sent out at 10.30 PM, 12 midnight, 2 AM and 4 AM along front from Road to Cemus; and no enemy were met with for 200 yards out. There was practically no shelling during the night but bombing was continuous throughout the greater portion of night on Right and left. At Daylight no sign of enemy and quietness was taken advantage of by us for distribution of Ammunition, Rations, water. Distinctions of Gun emplacement Cover at M.24.a 1,3. was completed. A Vickers gun was moved to that position to cover the left Flank. Enemy started shelling our front at 8 P.M. with H.E. and 18 pdrs. shrapnel. Their shelling with latter was very good but did little damage to trenches, and wounded 5 men from W. West Coast Platoons during the morning. At 4.30 PM Telephone communication was established with Gun direct. The day of 2nd was wet. * and work was carried on in cleaning trench of dead and wounded, and deepening trench until it was finally finished. Situation remained quiet until about 9 PM. when heavy bombing was going on on left by L'Ancourt L'Abbey. A patrol was sent out 5 own front, but no enemy were about. We were relieved about 2 AM. by 1st Batt. of Rifle Brigade. As Coy relieving was weak in Lewis guns. left 2 Lewis guns belonging to 2nd Otago behind to assist 1st Batt. Rifle Brigade.

I beg to recommend 11/1546 Pte Fitzgerald J. for immediate reward on account of his good services which I have mentioned in Reports above.

Also Coy. Sgt. Major C.E. Holmes 10/3295 for the splendid assistance he gave me on the 1st and 2nd Octobers in consolidating trenches and collecting working parties.

Also Corpl Spaark S.T. 12/460 for the same assistance and bravery in front of Gird Trench where he shot 5 of the enemy retiring from the same trench.

Also Pte Johnson O.H. 10/3614 of your Batt Signallers for the excellent work he has done during the whole of the operations since 14th 9-16 in establishing communication between your Hdqrs and Coy Hdqrs in firing line and repairing same under most trying circumstances by. Casualties during 1st & 2nd have been as follows.

for some two minutes. Yet barely 45 yards remained between the last wave of Otago and the first wave of Taranaki (5th wave of attack. The 6th wave was at appx the same distance behind 5th and followed with Coy Hdqrs. 50 yards behind the 6th. I am now certain that at the time the first two waves gained the objective the 5th was not more than fifty yards behind them (travelling quicker). at that time 70 yards was about the limit of forward observation on account of dense smoke and fumes of the barrage. At the time coy Hdqrs reached the objective appx. Zero + 13 min I had an impression that troops on left had not wheeled sufficiently to the right and had thickened in a direction more N.W. to right of Circus, and were still advancing beyond objective. We came upon objective 100 yards East of West. Road on Rt. and were extremely puzzled to know just whether we were in one of those saps you had informed me of, or on the actual position. It took me about 5 minutes to decide and in that time travelled some 150 yards to Right and returning made about same distance to Left. and in that investigation I saw the trench was continuous from Right to Left in that it ran away towards North end of Goose Alley to East. and mill to north of Fauconrt L'Abbey to West. Further we came upon a sap leading off at Rt angles from the objective from W.24.a.1.3, in direction of W.23.D.7.6 on Abbey Road. To make certain I sent a runner Pvt. Fitzgerald forward to see if there could be another trench ahead, this he did going forward some 250 yards. and reporting that he saw many of our men lying in shell holes under the the barrage and with men in front. and a trench beyond (some 50 yards) from which Enemy were sniping and playing machine guns on them. This was a double proof for me that we were on the objective and I immediately ordered men to consolidate the trench. I wrote my first message to you then and sent it back by a man who was assisting as escort to about 40 or 50 prisoners who had been gathered at W.24.A.1.3. These I ordered to be sent to the rear immediately. I then dispatched Runner Pte Fitzgerald with a written order to all men in front of us to retire on the objective steadily. Time about Zero plus 30 minutes (Cont. under Jan 10.11.12.13)

Early in the morning. about 2 AM. The Coy was relieved by the 1st Battalion of the 3rd Rifle Brigade. Fortunately there was no shelling at the time and Coy was assembled together with the 2 platoons of West Coast Coy under Lt Boscawen and moved across country to Goose Alley. It was extremely dark and road was struck at sling point in Fauvent d'Abbay Road. It is worthy of note that the Coy Sgt Major Holmes, who was left behind to bring over machine gun section, in bringing this party across completed a circle to the left and a first brought up where he had started. This party had no compass and the night was so dark that, only about 30 paces could anything be seen in front; however they managed to catch up to the end of the Coy at Goose Alley. Great Coats were picked up at this place and Coy moved on towards Flers. At start of sap on this road. a shell H.E. landed on road alongside the West Coast men in rear of Coy and resulted in one man Corp being killed and 9 others wounded. all in the leg. A part of No 2 MG Coy coming behind me also struck and Lieut Weil was killed and several men killed & wounded. This was a most unfortunate occurrence as Lt Boscawen remained behind to see these men attended to. Daylight broke while coy were moving back through Fish Alley, and the cookers were reached at Green Thistle Dump at 6.30 AM. and men enjoyed a hot meal & tea. The first after 5 days and nights of solid work. Coy moved into Savoy. Lunch after breakfast and preparations were made to move to Lieut F.S.C. At 12.30 PM orders were out and companies moved independently at 1 PM. in order of H.W.C. H.B. T. & Res. The rain of previous day had made roads in a bad state and going was not of the best. The Coy move via Green Dump by motor bus, in march and Lieut to Camp in F.S.C. which was reached about 5 PM. and coy had tea and biscuits supplied by Quakers

Dear Sir,

We beg to thank you for your letter dated 6th Nov. which we have received today. We have much pleasure in asking you to accept a copy of our Letts' Diary No.41. We hope that during 1917 there will be recorded in it progress and victories and better still for everyone the proclamation of Peace. One day perhaps these records will be available as a book, and if so we should like to have the first offer of publishing them.

We reciprocate most heartily your greeting. We wish you success and victory and the preservation of your lives. We would like to thank you also for the little souvenir which you sent and which is much appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

LETTS'S PERPETUAL DIARY.

LETTS'S PERPETUAL DIARY is arranged on an entirely new principle and will supply a long-felt want. It is specially useful to all who require a Diary before present publishing time. It can be used for the present or any future year, and in addition to the ordinary uses for which a Diary is required, it will be found particularly necessary to Lawyers, Bankers, Insurance and Mercantile Houses, Clergymen, Doctors, Artistes, Lecturers, and others who record engagements or dates. It can also be used as a brief Family Record Book so that each day may be compared with events happening in previous years. Two editions are published, one for ordinary and the other for Leap Years.

THE DIARY CAN BE ADAPTED TO ANY YEAR IN ONE MINUTE, AND SHOW THE EXACT DAY AND DATE IN THE YEAR REQUIRED.
